We are excited to announce our Servant Leaders Women's Retreat, open to the first 24 women (age 35 or older) who are interested in doing the deep work necessary to grow in the Lord, and who meet the qualifications for this weekend experience.

Our goal is that each woman break through into personal freedom by exploring a specific area or areas in her life that have held her back in her wholeness and her service to God. The women who come to this retreat will be asked to "stretch" in what might be uncomfortable ways, with the vision of fulfilling dreams or wishes that she may never have accomplished because of guilt, finances, or a lack of opportunity.

The retreat will be held at beautiful Camp Vision, in Bloomington, Indiana. The accommodations are rustic. It will be a time away from household responsibilities to enjoy the fellowship of other Christian women. Lodging for the 5 nights and 6 days is in a dorm setting (bunk beds) with a separate bathhouse. It will include healthy meals, quiet time, praise & worship, teachings, workshops, and surprise recreational outings. All women are expected to participate in the entire week of activities, including camp chores. The weather in April is unpredictable, so bring something for cooler temperatures.

The qualifications are:

- A commitment to Spirit and Truth Fellowship International.
 - A desire to increase your capacity to serve the Lord through greater personal wholeness.
 - A letter of reference from one person (not a relative) with whom you are in an accountable relationship, and who recommends you as serious and honest in your willingness to deal with your personal issues.
